Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Tuesday 02 Feb 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Cloudy with showers or longer outbreaks of rain.

This Evening and Tonight:
It will be mostly cloudy with showers or some longer outbreaks of rain, perhaps snow at times over the Antrim Hills. The rain occasionally heavy, mainly in the east overnight. Windy with easterly gales along the north coast. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Wednesday:
Cloudy with showers or the odd longer spell of rain, the most persistent rain expected towards the north coast and still wintry over the Antrim Hills. Cold easterly winds. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Remaining unsettled over the coming days with outbreaks of rain and snow. Feeling cold in the strong northeasterly winds.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.